

This fall 2009, College of Sequoias' fashion program is offering:

FASH 076: Textiles as a completely online course.

This is the basic introductory textiles course which is a core requirement in the fashion merchandising and design certificates as well as at the CSU campuses, (ie. CSU Long Beach FMD 253, a lower division course).

We hope you will share this information with your students, especially those who may have missed this requirement if you only offer it in the Spring.

We are currently enrolling students and will continue through August 16, 2009
Students can apply by going online to www.cos.edu

Register for Textiles (3 units) CRN 12693

The class will run from August 17 to December 11.

The swatch book, yarn samples and text listed below are available through the COS bookstore website COS Bookstore
