

Family and Consumer Science Statewide Advisory Committee
February, 20, 2009
Fox Racing Santa Ana

Attending: Shirley Brown, Susan Coleman, Lori Graham, Pamela Knights, Kristine Passalacqua, Barbara Mickelson, Allen Martin, Roger Gerard, Steve Kasmar, Carol Rupe, Kathi Cliff, Biz Steinberg, Carol Lee, Donna Stearns, Joann Driggers, Sheila Dufresne, Jan Swinton, Michelle Beitel

Agenda	Discussion	Action
Welcome and Introductions
Special Populations	Jan Swinton <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jan distributed CCC Programs Classified as Non traditional • Special Populations Conference was held in December • Jan distributed Curriculum Resource for special populations 	Joann to send email to Sharon Wong swong@cccco.edu regarding missing TOP codes in the Programs Classified as Nontraditional brochure Send link to System's Office website for the brochure www.cccco.edu/division/cte/
Industry Partners	Kristine Passalacqua <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CCIDC has a new exam that is approved by the Business and Professions Committee; one time exam; four years of education and 2 years of experience, three years and three years, 2 years and four years or five years of experience; 150 questions to be administered online; $150 to register for exam, $300 plus $75 to take exam; • ASID will try to gain legal recognition in CA again in the 	Doug Stead at ccidc.org is available to make presentations to community college classes and students;

	future <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Student Career Forum March 13 and 14 at Galleria Showplace in San Francisco• Students need skills in: how to understand construction and construction history to understand construction; need for cross training/generalist; flexibility; sustainability “Green Design” and ways to save water; Biz Steinberg – Early Childhood <ul style="list-style-type: none">• $1.1 Billion in Early Start and $1 Billion in Headstart• Families need child care• Students need more education• Reductions in home support services and TANIF;• Stimulus money should help families make up what they have lost• CAYC Conference in March• Prop 10 money is going to be used for other projects but local commissions can keep their fund balances;• Students need to have technology skills; reentry students may not have the basic technology classes; they need observation and
--	---	--

	assessment to include physical, emotional and social so that children get early intervention; Barbara Mickelson-Fashion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students need technical knowledge on how garments are constructed; need computer information skills to include Excel and PowerPoint and Illustrator for design and application; • Shoe development could be integrated into the curriculum or at least make students aware of shoe development option; • International compliance and customs issues are critical for Fashion today; • Documentation is critical when importing textiles; • CPSC on flammability and lead testing to all textiles; Shirley Brown – Food & Nutrition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creativity is critical in all areas of the food industry • Fast food restaurants are growing because families can still afford them; Upscale restaurants are having trouble; • Fast food have increased value and nutrition; creative marketing ideas 	Shoe development could be integrated into the subject matter workshops for faculty; World Shoe Association See attached written report
--	--	--

	are helping some restaurants increase in sales; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food manufacturing has shifted to the school, college and university food service • People need to learn about meal planning; downsizing of serving containers; planning more variety; • Peanut butter has been banned in many schools; Sun butter and almond butter have taken the place of peanut butter; • Fast food and obesity are concern; eating healthy is important to society; people are starting to balance their diets rather than eating the “big burger” • Foods of the depression era are becoming popular as a result of the economy • Taste of Home cookbooks are a good source for recipes and food inspiration; • Need for teaching basic cooking skills as a life skill; • HACCP is a law now for food manufacturing and food labeling;
Academic Senate	No Report

Collaborative Grant Project	Program Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revision has been very successful; • Plan is ready to mailing next week • Each chapter contains slo's, expanded career pathways, and expanded resources; • Excellent articulation chapter; • CD is being duplicated and will distributed with the program plan; • Program Plans are being mailed to CTE Deans, Academic Administrators and FCS program leads; • 900 copies are being printed FCS FLASH <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Based on Brain Rules Student Leadership Activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Design Students Event on verbal and written communication by Kent Reyling, Kimball International March 6 at the Energy Resource Center • Culinary Event – California Dreaming: Dining Through the Decades April 17 at Energy Resource Center; new this year is a tablescaping competition for hospitality students; competitors coming from more than 100 miles can be reimbursed for travel up to
---	--	--

	$150. Website <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Currently being updated Next year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FLASH; student events; Child Development Event and Professional Development Workshop for 8 subject areas; • Best Practices Showcase via webcam and UTube video to showcase successful practices; 	Market to high school programs and add CSU in the future
Partner Agency Report	Donna <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Budget has been passed; CCCCCO will have two day furlough per month for 18 months; • Grant is up for renewal and due March 6. Janice DeBenedetti <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See attached report Allen Martin <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reduction in adjunct faculty for Fall 2009; • Interior Design enrollment is declining • Increase in Nutrition • Deceasing resources and enrollments • Statewide Counselors workshop in September at CSU 	Committee members expressed that it is unconscionable for CDE to take high school teachers to a professional development event a private school like FIDM given the cost of financial aid and starting salaries; Possible to do a workshop at CSU

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experimenting with online courses in FCS Education;
Discipline Faculty Reports	Carol Lee - Articulation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • LDTP was developed to enhance transfer rather than supplant existing articulation agreements; LDTP is a problem for counselors because they have no information from the transfer institution; Pamela Knights - Fashion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Digital skills are critical; basic business skills, factoring and funding are critical; Steve Kasmar – Culinary Arts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bio Terrorism through food • HCCP System • Sustainability • Program is providing oil Bio Diesel for trucks used on campus • Industry is slow but student enrollment is growing 15% Michelle Beitel – Career Pathways <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CSULA is doing a May interterm through Extended Education • Students must understand emerging careers, niche markets, and labor market information • There is a gap between where students want to work and what employers are willing to pay for; 	Idea for faculty workshops Fashion Business

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Internships are critical• Students need to have a Fashion Point of View or innovation; Lori Graham – Interior Design <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Technology is critical to include Revit, 20/20 and Illustrator• Kitchen and Bath design skills are continuing to be important• Difficult to place students in jobs and internships but students are being innovative• Customer Service is essential• How to classes are growing; Palomar is offering upholstery, drapery and furniture restoration; Roger Gerard – Hospitality <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Carol and Roger will present to CCCAOE to report on this committee;• College looking at eliminating CTE programs• Technology skills; compliance with online teaching;• Jobs are less visible so networking is an important skill; Students should be looking at areas of growth:• Students need job search and basic interviewing skills; Carol Rupe
--	--	--

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SMART skills are critical; Butte is using workshops through existing agencies; didactic intervention; public speaking skills and transitional skills; • Interdisciplinary skills and courses are critical • Gen Ed requirements are being increased and cutting program requirements; Kathi Cliff - Early Childhood <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Need to integrate “green technology” across the curriculum; • Stated funded preschools have to serve food; need to have collaboration with food and nutrition students; • Need for online teaching and technology skills to be effective teachers
Future Meeting Dates	May 1, 2009	Sheraton 4 Points Hotel Fresno Susan will research options

Submitted:
February 20, 2009