

Family and Consumer Science Statewide Advisory Committee
September 18, 2009- Holiday Inn Capitol Plaza, Sacramento
Agenda

Agenda	Discussion	Action
I. Welcome and Introductions		Susan Coleman to represent Workforce Development
II. Review Agenda
III. Approval of Minutes 5.1.09		Approved
IV. Update Membership Roster
V. Update on Budget	Contract was received from the Chancellor's Office with same budget amount as last year.	Budget approved by Shasta College Board of Trustees and travel arrangements for the upcoming year have been made.
VI. Special Populations Report	Jan Swinton-Special Populations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spoke about the alignment of programs that are classified as non-traditional. • Academic Senate- Vocational Education Leadership Institute- March 11-13 in Napa. • Passed around materials concerning working with Special Populations. • December conference at the Holiday Inn Capitol Plaza Sacramento. Brochure on Perkins funding and serving Special Populations was shared.

VII. Industry Partner Report	Fashion-Barbara Mickelson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seeing layoffs, lost 3 employees, a lot more cross-training, bad holiday season but increases for Spring. • Line has to be produced. Commissioning with local artists, article on website, • Hurley has opened a new store in So. Cal. • Lowbrow art. Another article on street artist from San Diego-collaboration • Green movement is still big. Coffee mugs distributed and no paper cups in the office. Shirley Brown-Food and Nutrition Cleveland Clinic- Obesity Summit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medical doctors- controlling weight issues • Research on causes- lifestyle and surgery • Pediatric obesity • Morbidity and connections • Strategies on weight loss • Eating disorders in females and males • Adolescents seeking bariatric surgeries • BMI over 40- candidates for 	Download: Shirley Brown Report 9/18/09
--------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------

	surgeries <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Psychological affects of being obese.• Curriculums on “Food for Knowledge”- Making wise food choices in children that would eventually be shared with adults.• 5- 4-3-2-1 Program for children.• Long-term success of diet loss programs were compared and discussed.• Moderate exercise is affective as rigorous exercise.• Partnerships being made with customers.• Foods- International Food Technologists. Food Trends.• 2015- Lower income households will continue to grow. Less expensive having more upscale look.• Cheaper cuts of meat. Slow cookers, woks, upgrading cooking ingredients. Fewer shopping goods, pop-up timers, ripeness sensors.• Potluck meals, marinated preparations will be popular. Organic predicted to be down.• Labeling important.• Functionally fresh items will be
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

	important. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Menu value propositions- protein as a condiment. Reduce cost on protein, • Comfort food- more economical. • Exotic cheeses on Mac and Cheese. • Portion size options. Small plates, mini-meals. • Subway # 1 for sales. Biz Steinberg- Childhood Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On the Federal side there has been money, but in California funding has been cut. • State reductions- alignment with Federal funds to make up for losses in the state. • It is devastating to the elderly, low income mothers, new working poor, • Travel monies to go Oct. 5th and 6th conference in Sacramento.
VIII. Academic Senate Report	Patty Dilko- Academic Senate CCC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Fall Plenary is November 12 - 14, 2009 http://www.asccc.org/Events/SessI

	nfo.htm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Winter Vocational Leadership Conference is March 11 - 13, 2010 http://www.asccc.org/Events/VocEd.htm • The State Senate was affected by the budget cuts, the State Office staff and the Governing Board are working on adjustments while retaining a commitment to services that have been promised. • If anyone on the FCS Advisory Committee has suggestions for resolutions to be brought forward please Patty Dilko before October 30.
IX. Collaborative Grant Project	Sheila Dufresne- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Website is fully operational. • New writers are being employed. Erin Bianchi- Fashion, Gerontology- Maria Claver, Carol Lamkins-Kitchen Design, Delores Robles, Consumer Studies. • Distributing Flash from Mt. Sac office through a service. • Thousand people on email list.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reporting features on how many have read site. • Read the Flash and Forward to a Friend option. • Flash numbers will be update on usage. It is an opt-in list. • Under construction: Archive, searchable by author. • Program showcase to be on website. • CCC Directory. • Program Showcase projects. • Hosting of website to be paid by Shasta College • Professional Development Workshops
X. Partner Agency Reports	Chancellor’s Office Patricia Macias-Najar <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Federal funds significant cuts. • Flexibility is done at the local level. • Child development funds in CalWorks can be redirected. • Childcare funds being hit due to fiscal situation. • Allocation for travel 3.9%. This was the allocation. Professional 	Downloads: Categorical Flexibility Memo Categorical Spreadsheet

	development funds can be used for one-day events- question for Ron Selge. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supplanting funds- Perkins money cannot be used for Basic Skills.• CTE funds cuts. 58-48 reduction.• CTE updates on CCC website. List of all upcoming conferences. Handout and link from Patricia Forward to Sheila• Clarifications from Ron Selge should be also sent to chairs of Advisory Boards. CDE- No report CSU- Allen Martin <ul style="list-style-type: none">• CSU forced to downsize.• Cut by 6,000 students in 2 years and raised fees. Furloughs are in place. Interior design reduced 50% in offerings.• Nutrition is popular.• Apparel has remained stable.• Decline in budgets Workforce Development- Susan Coleman <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Econ Dev. 50% cut• Looking for good grant writers.• Categorical money in SB70 not	Memo from Ron Selge
--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------

	subject o flexibility <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pathways, Staff Development, Externships, and Middle Schools, http://www.ctecentral.org/ • Short-term funding-skills to work right away. Partnership with business. • We need more job developers. • Green and sustainable is strong. Carol Lee - Articulation/Transfer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regular articulation is back in place. Child Development articulation in very active. NAU Bachelor’s Degree. • UC raising tuition in November. • Private Post Secondary coming in with scholarships to compete in this market.
Discipline/Faculty Reports	Roger Gerard-Hospitality <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Potential layoffs of adjunct counselors at Shasta College. • Shasta College is # 1 for FTEs generation in the CCC system • Cuts have been made in course sections this semester. • No new courses and programs at Shasta. 	Link to “Travel Funding Tips” California Community College League

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Program Showcase will be filming next week that will encompass program, industry, and students.• Professional Development Symposium for Hospitality will be coordinated with Shasta College and San Jose State in Spring 2010. Carol Rupe – Family Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none">• There has been a 10% cut in courses and will be another 10% cut in Spring 2010.• Huge classes. No cap. Adjuncts are being cut to a certain extent.• People are the focus in the Program Showcase. Interviewing students in club. Interviews with students. Advisory out of area.• Professional development- looking at Human Services programs. Sacramento as the venue.• Community college programs to train mental health workers. Pamela Knights-Fashion <ul style="list-style-type: none">• LBCC cutback by 10%.• Reduce adjuncts, print own rosters. Multiple sections cut.• Clubs- non-profit reaches out to the community.
--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

- Received donations for Fashion show.
- Projects for students- Fair trade co-op. 60 people displaced. Student participation.

Michelle Crane-Career Pathways

- Higher enrollments
- Cut down of printing.
- More courses on continuing ed. Only two classes cut in Fashion.
- Industry- cut back on lighting. Home shop networks (QVC).
- Lower inventories for industry.

Lisa Ledeboer –Consumer Studies

- 5% cuts this fall.
- 25% cuts for Winter
- 5% for Spring
- No waitlists
- Change in student-make-up this Fall.
- Students appear to care a lot more and are more dedicated.

Kathi Cliff-Child Development- No report

Kristine Passalacqua- Interior Design

- Travel- $200.
- Ways industry is saving- light savings measured.
- SF Design Center- extra discounts
- General contractors taking on jobs that normally would not.
- Layoffs- model homes have dried-up
- People are willing to work harder for the bottom-line
- Sales are very down. The trend is national.
- Starter home sales are up.
- Professional development showcase in Fairfield.

Lori Graham- Interior Design/Merchandising

- Canceled Intersession. Mesa has canceled summer school. 4-day workweek being considered at Palomar.
- Instructors encouraged to use Blackboard for posting
- Butte College # 1 for sustainability. Interior Design has taken a hit.
- Get the word out: Chair for Charity. Chairs auctioned off for charity.

	Steve Kasmar- Culinary Arts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $800 and $300 FT and PT travel at LATTC. • Asked to cut 2% of hours for CTE classes. • Summer has been cut. Cut backs on food and supplies for Culinary Arts. Cut back on adjuncts. • Machine to convert grease to bio-diesel. • Green dish machine- uses less energy. Heat sanitation. • Enrollments are up.
XII. Basic Skill and CTE	Lisa Ledeboer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Travel- $200. Money is there if it fits for Basic Skills and handled by Professional Development
XIII. Future Meeting Dates	February 5, 2010 – Doubletree Hotel, Santa Ana April 30, 2010- Prescott Hotel, San Francisco
XIV. Other

Submitted: September 19, 2009
Roger Gerard