

Family & Consumer Sciences Statewide Advisory Committee
September 24, 2004
10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Sheraton Grand, Sacramento, CA

Agenda	Discussion	Action
I. Welcome & Introductions	New members were welcomed to the committee
II. Review Agenda & Meeting Schedule
III. Correct & Approve Minutes from May 7, 2004 Meeting	Minutes approved	Correct Typos
IV. Update Membership Roster
V. Opening Remarks
VI. Update on Budget for 2004/2005	Budget is the same for 2004-2005 for meetings, website and marketing
VII. CCCFCS Web Site	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Home page has been developed with new disciplines and photos • Joann is hiring writers for each discipline for website; she is looking for a writer for Family Studies • 95% of colleges have Early Childhood but few have Family Studies; this may be under other disciplines; Family Studies is interaction of the family; • FCS FLASH should be archived along with other information from the website • Faculty enjoy FLASH and use the information; easy to read; maintain the one-page format • FLASH topics could include: SLO's, Assessment, Career Development, Professional Development, Partnership Development • Jan- Intergenerational Centers are good partnerships; Home Health is in huge demand. • Lucy said there are good partnerships with community agencies; there are CARE/CRI funds for Early Childhood students; Foundation/CDE/Local colleges applied for funds for Early Childhood students in Calworks • Best practices should be featured in FLASH 	Contact Eloise about writing for Family Studies Research Intergenerational Centers and resources Joann to feature best practices in FLASH and on website
VIII. Business and Industry Update	Cynthia Schlesinger-Gerontology <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research continues on aging;

- Walking is a benefit to aging;
- Retirement issues are Social Security, drug cards, pension plans, and housing
- Shabaz and Eden Projects are good examples of best practices where certified nurse assistant run a home with a central focus
- Increasing jobs in healthcare
- Need for financial planners, adult day care and home health care, travel planners
- Issues of older workers in the workplace

Linda Kammerer

- The Regional Interior Design Consortium is planning a student event on aging for February 25, 2005 at Fullerton College
- There is no financial reimbursement for travel, but students find a way to attend
- Faculty need to encourage students to attend
- There is a Student Career Forum in San Francisco in the spring for 500 students per year; 2 day event; competitions; career speakers; network of professionals and students

Kristine

- Interior Design is growing and practitioners are very busy
- Cost of workman's comp is a problem for fabricators
- There are many advances in kitchen industry and appliances;
- Student enrollment is very good

Bruce – Culinary

- Private culinary schools are booming
- ACF is requiring chefs to be certified and have upgraded the requirements
- “Dinners to Go” and personal chefs are good opportunities for community college graduates
- Eloise Cantrell is the ACF/CCE chair for Los Angeles area educators; they must video their teaching for Certified Culinary Educator
- Renewed need for butlers
- Faculty need to encourage certification and culinary competition to demonstrate skills

Renee Heinz-Baldwin – Fashion

- Volcom supported Fashion Symposium

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Import quotas are being eliminated for 2005 which is good for the US; there is more diversity in imports • Students need communication skills • Cultural competencies are important for global competition; students should take international business courses Shirley Brown- Food and Nutrition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is new legislation on child nutrition • Schools are using more fruits and vegetables from local farmers • Students need menu development • ACF requirements are improving the quality of chefs Roger Girard-Culinary Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is a need for currency for faculty in the profession • Private schools are doing compressed courses and hurting enrollment of community colleges programs • Compressed courses can improve retention 	Susan to put Culinary Olympic trip on the FCS website
IX. TOP Revision	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Faculty should check on their campus to make sure that the TOP revisions in 1300 have been implemented • There should be an asterisks on all 1300 programs to be eligible for VTEA funding • Transition to new TOP codes is scheduled for Fall 2005
X. Special Populations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special Populations conference is scheduled for February 9-10; topic is “Building Bridges” • There will also be regional workshops around the state for faculty • There is a need to partner with financial aid 	Information on Special Populations conference should be put in FLASH Website for financial information is www.icanafforcollege.com
XI. Collaborative Grant Report	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2003-2004 final report was distributed by Joann Driggers • A staff development event with Dr. Edward Chip Anderson is scheduled for October 29, 2004 on StrengthQuest for faculty • FLASH is a good for professional development delivery; it is important to run timely issues • Gerontology Team will be meeting October 15 at the Burbank Hilton to discuss “successful aging”; members will be developing three activities to be integrated into the curriculum; there will be future workshops for faculty

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There were 26 applications for mini-grants with 1/3 in early childhood development; the focus must be statewide leadership; • Articulation meeting was held with CSU Sacramento and the northern California feeder schools; program to program articulation seems to be the most successful; pre-credential and consumer science was emphasis for the meeting; CSUS has offered to have student orientation and tours; Allen indicated there is a push for CSU to articulation with Community Colleges and he will sponsor an articulation in November; Administrators should be invited; accreditation standards need to be addressed with articulation; IMPAC publishes the articulation patterns on the IMPAC website • Student events are planned for: Fashion on March 12, Interior Design February 25 at Fullerton College, Fashion Design Marketplace spring 2005 and Culinary events are to be announced soon; ECE holds numerous events for students and they are encouraged to attend NAEYC Conference November 11-13, 2004 in Anaheim 	Joann to add judging information on mini-grant application
XII. Partner Agency Reports	Geri Douglas-Chancellor's Office <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Colleges to ensure that taxpayer monies are being used legally. • CPR has recommendation to eliminate the Board of Governors and move community colleges under the Secretary of Education; everyone can make comments on the CPR website • Agency Review has four major goals for the System Office <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Develop and implement a strategic plan for CCC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve the oversight of the California Community Colleges to ensure that taxpayer's monies are being sued legally and efficiently • Design and implement a plan for the System Office staff aimed at creating a first class agency and providing excellent technical support 2. Dramatically improve its representation of the California Community Colleges to the state taxpayers, state and federal legislators and the business community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Perkins has been reviewed by the House and the Senate but may not be voted on before October 1; They are working on appropriation and will 	Respond to CPR recommendations at http://www.report.cpr.ca.gov/

	potentially extend for one more year <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Agency is hiring an external PIO Vice Chancellor Janice DeBenedetti – See attached report Allen Martin – CSU <ul style="list-style-type: none"> CSU's are hitting the budget wall; they are hiring lecturers and non-tenure track faculty; CSU is attempting to identify 6 units from the core; there is a demand for courses at the undergraduate level which provides an opportunity for community colleges to offer lower division courses 	Scan and attach report to minutes and post on website
XIII. Future Meeting Dates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> January 21, 2005 – Costa Mesa Marriott Suites May 6, 2005 – San Francisco, Location TBA
XV. Other	Marketing Ideas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> New Folders to match careers and website Redo Posters with a career focus Mouse pads Calendar Coffee mugs Calculator 3 fold brochure Stickers for calendar Conversion Chart – magnet Clips Future Agenda Items <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cultural Competencies Teaching in FCS 	Joann & Susan to work on marketing FCS & web site